

Les Lo Baugh, Partner, Los Angeles Law Firm

Over his more than 30 year career, Les has continued his work in alternative energy, energy, corporate and environmental law. He also counsels clients in regulatory, merger and acquisitions, climate change, endangered species, alternative energy, carbon capture and sequestration, carbon trading, CEQA/NEPA matters, and other environmental and energy issues. He began his career working in the U.S. Senate drafting environmental legislation such as the Endangered Species Act, Clean Air 1970, Clean Water, Noise Abatement, and Off-

Short Drilling. For fifteen years his practice was exclusively trial work, both civil and agency. The Los Angeles Bar Association, Corporate Section, named Les "Corporate Counsel of the Year." Super Lawyers Magazine recently featured Les in its 2010 Edition.
