

Terry Tamminen is an author, lecturer and strategist on energy and the environment. Terry founded the Santa Monica BayKeeper in 1993, served as the Executive Director of the Environment Now Foundation and co-founded the Frank G. Wells Environmental Law Clinic at the UCLA School of Law. He was appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger in 2003 as the Secretary of the CA Environmental Protection Agency. He is Founder and Executive Director of Seventh Generation Advisors, serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Center of Climate Strategies and is an Operating Advisor for Pegasus Capital Advisors.